Knaus Tabbert closes acquisition of the WVD Group

- Acquisition of 100% of the shares of the dealer for leisure vehicles
- Expansion of the dealer network in south-west Germany
- Previous management team continues to be responsible for operations

Jandelsbrunn - Knaus Tabbert has closed the acquisition of 100% of the shares in the WVD Group and is now the sole owner of the dealer for leisure vehicles. Knaus Tabbert had already announced the acquisition of the WVD Group (Freiburg, Germany) in December. All conditions for the transaction have now been fulfilled.

"With this acquisition, we are expanding our geographical market position and strengthening our position in south-western Germany. We have succeeded in binding a very successful sales partner closely to our company and in the future we will be able to further deepen access to our end customers," Gerd Adamietzki, CSO of Knaus Tabbert AG, commented on the transaction.

About the WVD Group

In addition to the sale and rental of recreational vehicles, WVD Südcaravan offers the complete portfolio of services and is a long-standing dealer partner of Knaus Tabbert. With around 40 employees and over 20,000m² of sales and service space, the dealer is one of the leading suppliers of recreational vehicles in southern Germany. In the 2020/21 financial year, a total turnover of around 20 million euros was generated, mainly with Knaus Tabbert vehicles.
